THE POPULISTS.

In the coming congressional election the populists will, unquestionably show decided strength. The usual revolution of feeling which history shows always follows such a great political triumph as that of 1892 will probably deprive the Democratic party of many of the congressional seats now held by it. This is a foregone conclusion. It may be reckoned upon as certainly as the setting of the sun. Even if Cleveland had not given the country a year of blunders, and if congress had not awakened general contempt by its imbecile treatment of the tariff, the reaction would have come. As it is its effect will be only the greater and the necessity of guarding against it more serious. The Times believes that a great number of votes which the Democracy will lose next Fall will go to the candidates of the People's party. It bases its opinion partly on the knowledge of the temper of the people, partly on the invariable political rule that in time of discontent and distress a third party always prospers.

There is significance in a vote recently taken by the Farm, Field and Fireside, a paper circulating among farmers but not in any sense a Populist organ. Of 20,392 votes cast the People's party ticket received 13,236; the Prohibition ticket, 2587; the Republican, 2474, and the Democratic 2095. It should be noted that the ballot was offered merely as an object lesson in the new scheme of voting on the proportional representation plan and without offering any definite issue, except the free coinage of silver, to the voters. On that issue the result was still more significant, standing: For free coinage 20,012, for gold monometallism, 421.—Chicago Times.

NEVADA APPLES SLIGHTED.

The Committee of awards never examined the apple display at the Fair, but gave the premiums to California apples. If the Committee will walk over to the Nevada building and see the apples that took first premium against the world at Chicago, (and these apples are just as fresh now as the day they were picked) they will realize their blunder. Nevada took the first premium on apples at Philadelphia, New Orleans and Chicago, but the exhibit here was not even judged in San Francisco.—Midwinter Appeal.

Comment is unnecessary. Nevada was not a favorite, (very likely), with the Committee if the above is true. The matter should be looked after by the Nevada Commissioner and the mistake corrected.—Enterprise.

COAST NEWS.

An effort is now being made to remove the county seat from Tombstone to Bisbee, A. T., and it will probably succeed.

The disappearance of rancher Wootton at Reedley is still a subject of much anxiety and discussion. It is generally thought to be a case of murder.

Another remarkable fish is on exhibition at Vancouver, B. C. Its head resembles that of a rabbit and its eye is perfectly transparent. No one has found a name for it.

A young man who is compiling a history of Montana proposed to the Butte Councilmen a few days ago to print a biographical sketch, with a portrait of each man who would pay $250.

The effort to arouse interest in the Industrial Army at San Bernardino is a labored one. The citizens do not take kindly to the methods of the men and object to the systematic working for aid to which they are subjected.

Thursday night in Sacramento a Chinaman was garroted in the northern part of the city and claims to have been robbed of $50 by four young men. Shortly afterward a gang of hoodlums, supposed to be those who robbed the Chinaman, wrecked a saloon in the same neighborhood and the police arrested two, the others escaping.

Trees.
